

AFSCME Cultural Workers United

AFSCME Cultural Workers United is leading the largest movement for cultural workers who are organizing for fair pay, quality health care and benefits, and a voice on the job. We represent 50,000 cultural workers at museums, zoos, libraries and other cultural institutions across the country, more than any other union.

We represent workers at the following institutions:

Libraries

Science Centers

Zoos

Observatories

Aquariums

Botanical Gardens

Museums
